Thank you! Although not every news item is shared, we will review each submission based on whether it is newsworthy and aligns with our mission. We encourage you to submit ideas as often as you have them.

More than 500 cleantech investors, entrepreneurs, and industry representatives are expected to attend the annual Industry Growth Forum (IGF) in Denver, April 29-30, 2020. The IGF, celebrating its 25th anniversary, is hosted by the U.S. Department of Energy’s National Renewable Energy Laboratory. It is one of the most anticipated events of the year.

Mycocycle, LLC has been selected to present its waste-to-resource process to investors and industry representatives at the 2020 Industry Growth Forum (IGF), April 29-30, in Denver. The IGF, celebrating its 25th anniversary, is hosted by the U.S. Department of Energy’s National Renewable Energy Laboratory. It is one of the most anticipated events of the year.

Engineered Ecosystem, at both waste management and manufacturing facilities, to toxic biomass for reuse. Their remediation process is delivered on-site via an extensive selection process.

"We are delighted by the support of NREL as we develop clean technologies to help diverting materials from landfill. "We are delighted by the support of NREL as we develop clean technologies to help" ... of materials from landfill. "We are delighted by the support of NREL as we develop clean technologies to help"

Waste and Recycling Events Affected by Virus

For our members and news readers, the coronavirus outbreak continues to present challenges to the waste and recycling industry. As we share updates from our members below, please visit our Coronavirus News section for more news.

Mycocycle Press Release

Recycle Shingles into Building Materials. Mycocycle, LLC is using mushrooms to recycle shingles now, but plans to expand market access for C&D products. The evening fundraiser was a good turnout and few cancellations. A panel on good market access for C&D products. The evening fundraiser was a good turnout and few cancellations. A panel on...}

Industry News

The Institute of the Scrap Recycling Industry was unable to find another time or venue for its Annual Meeting and Exhibition, and is canceling the event altogether for this year. The Institute of the Scrap Recycling Industry was unable to find another time or venue for its Annual Meeting and Exhibition, and is canceling the event altogether for this year.

WasteExpo is moving to August 10-13, 2020 and staying in New Orleans. Show participants in Las Vegas in light of the effect that COVID-19 will have on the North American economy. Sullivan, who has correctly predicted almost all the past dips and jumps in the economy, originally was forecasting a continued solid U.S. economic growth rate of 2% to 2.5% for 2020. Now, at best he said, we...